

PREFACE

The processing methodology recommended in this Guide is not dictated by legislative requirements. The material presented in this Guide in no way establishes certification requirements, nor does it present a policy statement. Keep in mind that there are alternative methods that a State may use other than the methods suggested in this Guide. The concepts recommended herein provide a method to facilitate a State's ability to manage data traffic between the State and the Federal Case Registry.